

Cal City Schools

Continued from page 1

Current cost to build California City High School is $20,681,550, and Hacienda Elementary is $10,998,250, Phelps said the district was able to increase its state matching funds to about $11 million for the high school.

AERIAL VIEW of the new California City High School under construction, showing some of the prefabricated building units that are being moved to the site from the California City Municipal Airport.

PHOTO BY VAN PRAY

Edited from an original article by Bill Deaver/Courtesy Mojave Desert News