about their new purchase. “We had been to Silver Saddle many times before we bought. We just enjoy going there. They have a lot of facilities like a pool, spa, restaurant, and so many activities. I really enjoy the four-person bicycles! And the people are so friendly. It’s just a wonderful place to be.”

The Elias’ were planning a housewarming for their new home over the busy Memorial Day weekend. They also have plans to purchase other homes and acreage at Silver Saddle with relatives and friends. Let’s welcome the Elias family!
